

U.S. Army Responsive Strategic Sourcing for Services Chooses tiag® to Support C4ISR Mission Requirements

RESTON, Va., December 5, 2018 – Supporting the U.S. Army Responsive Strategic Sourcing for Services (RS3) Program Office, tiag® was recently awarded a contract advancing the field of C4ISR, which encompasses a wide range of IT services and solutions centered on military situational awareness.

Covering a five-year base ordering period and five-year optional ordering period, this Indefinite Delivery, Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) contract presents abundant opportunities for tiag to provide best-value solutions for a diverse group of organizations spanning the spectrum of command, control, communications, computers, intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance (C4ISR) mission requirements throughout the world.

tiag Managing Principal and Chief Strategy Officer Umang Modi notes that C4ISR is a targeted growth area for tiag — especially in the Huntsville market — and this award leverages tiag’s forte in web and software development, cybersecurity, artificial intelligence (AI) and other areas of IT expertise.

“The Army R&D community will heavily rely on the RS3 contract for cutting-edge technology solutions and support services such as web and software development, cyber, AI, R&D, evaluation of technology applications, web-based training and other IT solutions,” says Modi.
