

EXECUTIVE PROMOTIONS ANNOUNCED AS tiag® CONTINUES EXPANSION INTO NEW MARKETS

RESTON, Va., Jan. 20, 2016 – tiag® (The Informatics Applications Group, Inc.) recently promoted Neil Lampton and Umang Modi to vice president posts as the company adds more than a dozen new contracts to its portfolio in the last quarter. Lampton and Modi are credited with garnering significant new work for tiag including behavioral health mobile apps, cyber security, data integration for clinical analysis and an expanded footprint in Washington state with city and state government organizations.

An expert in the architecture and deployment of mission-critical federal enterprise projects, Lampton is known for his proactive, on-target identification of solutions that maximize innovation, increase business value, heighten productivity and boost efficiency while minimizing cost. Lampton has helped shape contract operations and IT initiatives for tiag's work with U.S. Department of Homeland Security, U.S. Air Force Medical Operations Agency, U.S. Army Medical Research and Materiel Command, National Center for Telehealth & Technology and Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences, as well as various IT initiatives in Washington state.

Overseeing crucial enterprise management endeavors and key healthcare initiatives, Modi's profound understanding of business, technology and process issues translates into intuitive leadership supported by critical analysis and whatever-it-takes determination. Innovative solutions follow, as evidenced in contract operations at Defense Health Agency, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, U.S. Army Warrior Transition Command, Army Analytics Group, Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences and numerous other organizations.

"For more than a decade, Neil Lampton and Umang Modi have demonstrated inspired leadership as their roles and responsibilities with tiag have grown. They have directly contributed to tiag's year-over-year success and are poised to have even more impact in their new roles," said tiag president and CEO Dalita Harmon. "Most importantly, they care about the success of every project for every customer, and delivering it in a way that goes above and beyond every expectation."
