tiag® Accelerates Growth with Expansion in Seattle's Tech Community

RESTON, Va., Feb. 14, 2017 — tiag® recently expanded its Reston, Va., headquarters to the Pacific Northwest, in response to increasing demand for the company's innovative IT services and solutions on the West Coast. Demonstrating tiag's ongoing commitment to the area by providing a centralized location for its fast-growing staff in this region, the company's new office in Renton, Wash., is ideally located between the high tech centers in Seattle and state government concentration in Olympia.

Located at 1201 Monster Rd., SW, Suite 440, Renton, Wash., 98057, tiag's Pacific Northwest office also allows tiag to focus on accelerating growth of its mobile platform and software development division. The company's mobile application development and user-experience design team brings a novel approach to creating pioneering technology products and services — ranging from mobile health apps for TBI, PTSD and behavioral health, to radiological assessments for disaster response and other distinctive mobile apps.

"This expansion provides a quality venue for team and community collaboration on myriad IT initiatives we are honored to support," says tiag President and CEO Dalita Harmon. "Our teams in the Pacific Northwest are thrilled about this opportunity to provide a wide range of IT strategic planning and consulting services, program and project management support, IT system implementations, along with our mobile app development, cloud adoption and data center consolidation strategies, and other IT developments for new and existing customers in the area."

Regional customers who rely on tiag for technology solutions include Washington State Health Care Authority, Washington State Department of Veterans Affairs, Washington State Department of Ecology, City of Seattle Department of Transportation, the City of Tacoma, University of Washington, Edmonds Community College, and DoD's National Center for Telehealth & Technology at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, among other organizations.

The phone number for tiag's Renton office is (425) 528-2839.
